Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Natalya Dvorson on 8/19/09.

The application has been amended as follows:

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 24-38 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner’s statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not disclose or suggest “a controller that makes the detection section perform an operation detecting the width of the recording medium, the operation being settable to ON or OFF, wherein when the operation is set to ON, the operation is performed before the recording head starts recording the recording information onto the recording medium, and when the operation is set to OFF, the recording head starts recording the recording information onto the recording medium without performing the operation, wherein the operation is initially set to ON or OFF in accordance with a type of print mode comprising a first print mode and a second print mode, the second print mode has a lower print resolution than the first print mode, and wherein in the first print mode, the operation is initially set to ON, and in the second print mode, the operation is initially set to OFF” in combination with the remaining claim elements set forth in claims 24, 33 and 36.

Art Unit: 2861

4. Similarly, the prior art does not disclose or suggest “when the operation is set to ON, performing the operation before the recording head starts recording the recording information onto the recording medium; when the operation is set to OFF, making the recording head start the recording of the recording information onto the recording medium without performing the operation; and setting the operation to either one of ON and OFF based on a print mode type, wherein the print mode type comprises a first print mode and a second print mode, the second print mode having a lower print resolution than the first print mode, and wherein the operation is initially set to ON in the first print mode and the operation is initially set to OFF in the second print mode” in combination with the remaining claim elements set forth in claims 34 and 35.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
